Present: Mary A Snyder, John Boyd, Barb and Ed Stofcheck, Teri and Jeff McCormack, Dave and Doris Stallsmith, Amy Kerr, Cheryl Johnson, Shawn Cress, Bruce White (?), Rick and Deb Berry, Connie Kendall, Rhonda Burggraf, Mark Poling, Jeanie Park

Meeting opened at 7:10 pm.

Treasurer report given. There is $49,304.23 in the treasury. This is an increase of 2163.99. The increased funds are tickets (duck/cow plop), 5k participants, donations, vendors, and from Krogers.

Barb and Cheryl met w/Evelyn from Regional Planning who brought them "wish books" to review for playground equipment; also discussed – exercise equipment for senior citizens and a walkway from Kiwanis Village.

Bang: Barb reached out to Chad Cunningham about volunteers from Elgin school. Diane has been in contact with Elgin about the football players coming to raise money with the football toss. Barb also reached out to the Lion's club but hasn't heard back yet. Discussion was held about where to put the baked goods for the auction. Connie reported that need one more volunteer to help put up the tents at the beginning of the week. Connie has 14 vendors coming; four food trucks plus the funnel cakes and cream puffs. Someone needs to talk to Coonies about the tents being up in the lot; discussion was held about where to put the cow plop; eggs have been ordered for the egg toss; FD generously agreed to help with clean up; the bill came for the family value add = $550; discussion was held about over the street banner restrictions for Marion city; FD will help with games but may not be able to commit as many hands as in the past; Cheryl asked for permission to spend money on the ads – Connie moved and Deb seconded to allow Cheryl to spend up to 200 for a color add. This motion passed. The Methodist church will allow us to use their portable sound system but Rick must man it; Discussion was held about where to put the audio equipment – not decisions made – Diane needs to be involved in decision; Saturday night band is Octane also Jerry Morgan and Outlaw 365 will be present; Jeanie to work on string bags; Amy suggested to use Richwood Bank for advertising purposes in the future; Deb bought prizes for the games; 194.68 and 85.19 to be paid to Deb; discussion was held about who would sell tickets outside the bank and when

The meeting concluded at 8:23 pm.
